Welcome to Brighton Lutheran Mission!

We are delighted to have you with us this evening to receive the Lord's gifts of forgiveness, life and salvation. Please stay for a cup of tea after the service.

If you are worshipping us for the first time and would like to receive Holy Communion, please speak to the pastor before the service.

P The Creed, the Second Article

C And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God, the Father Almighty. From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead.

P What does this mean?

C I believe that Jesus Christ, true God, begotten of the Father from eternity, and also true man, born of the Virgin Mary, is my Lord, who has redeemed me, a lost and condemned person, purchased and won me from all sins, from death, and from the power of the devil; not with gold or silver, but with His holy, precious blood and His innocent suffering and death, that I may be His own and live under Him in His kingdom and serve Him in everlasting righteousness, innocence, and blessedness, just as He is risen from the dead, lives and reigns to all eternity. This is most certainly true.

A READING FROM THE BOOK OF CONCORD

THE APOLOGY OF THE AUGSBURG CONFESSION

ARTICLE V: LOVE AND FULFILLING THE LAW

On this topic the adversaries quote against us: “If you would enter life, keep the commandments” (Matthew 19:17); likewise, “It is the doers of the law who will be justified” (Romans 2:13), and many other things about the Law and works. Before we reply to this, we must first declare what we believe about love and the fulfilling of the Law.

I will put My Law within them, and I will write it on their hearts. (Jeremiah 31:33)

Do we overthrow the law by this faith? By no means! On the contrary, we uphold the Law. (Romans 3:31)

If you would enter life, keep the commandments. (Matthew 19:17)

But [if I] have not love, I gain nothing. (1 Corinthians 13:3)

These and similar sentences testify that we are to keep the Law when we have been justified by faith, and so grow in fulfilling the Law more and more (by the Spirit). Furthermore, we are not talking about ceremonies, but about the Law that addresses the movements of the heart, namely the Ten Commandments. 4] Faith brings the Holy Spirit and produces a new life in hearts. It must also produce spiritual movements in hearts. The prophet Jeremiah shows what these movements are when he says, “I will put My law within them, and I will write it on their hearts” (Jeremiah 31:33). Therefore, when we have been justified by faith and regenerated, we begin to fear and love God, to pray to Him, to expect aid from Him, to give thanks and praise Him, and to obey Him in times of suffering. We also begin to love our neighbours, because our hearts have spiritual and holy movements.

These things cannot happen until we have been justified through faith and regenerated (we receive the Holy Spirit). That’s because the Law cannot be kept without Christ; likewise, the Law cannot be kept without the Holy Spirit. But the Holy Spirit is received through faith, as Paul declares in Galatians 3:14, “that we might receive the promised Spirit through faith.” Also remember, how can the human heart love God while it knows that He is terribly angry and is oppressing us with earthly and endless distress? The Law always accuses us. It always shows that God is angry. God is not loved until we receive mercy through faith. Not until then does He become someone we can love.

A note from Jacob and Laura

As you may know, Laura and I are due to marry this summer, Thursday 20 August. It would mean a great deal to us if our church family could join us for this special day, so please accept this message as a warm invitation to all to attend our service.

We are blessed to have Pastor Tapani leading the ceremony beginning at 12.30pm, however the service will be taking place in a church closer to home:

Holy Innocent's Church, Southwater, RH13 9BT.

We appreciate this is a distance to travel and so understand if you are unable to make the journey. We are greatly appreciative of all your support and well wishes for the beginning of our lives together.

Please feel free to ask us any further questions about the day by e-mail, mobile or on our home number: 01403 251364
